Title: CHARLES BENJAMIN DI CARO

Character: ANTI-RACKETEERING

Synopsis: Subject observed with RALPH PIERCE, LES KRUSE, and HY GODFREY. Four automobiles are registered to subject and PAUL DI CARO at 706 West 26th Street.

-P-

DETAILS: At Chicago, Illinois.

On July 27, 1970, the subject was observed in the lobby of the Pittsfield Building, 55 East Washington Street, at 12:35 am. He was in the company of RALPH PIERCE, LES KRUSE, and an unidentified male at 12:45 am. LES KRUSE walked to the cigar counter in the lobby of the Pittsfield Building and subject, accompanied by PIERCE and another unidentified male, walked to the basement restaurant of the Pittsfield Building.

On August 5, 1970, at 10:50 am the subject was observed at the Towne Parking Lot, Wabash and Van Buren Streets, in a 1969 Buick, four door, with 1970 Illinois license 462-520. It is noted this car was parked across from the door of the parking lot office vertical to Wabash Avenue and at the sidewalk line. This vehicle is registered to PAUL and CHARLES DI CARO. The subject, after a short conversation with the parking lot attendant, proceeded South on Wabash Avenue.

On August 12, 1970, the subject, with RALPH PIERCE and unidentified male who is not identical with person observed on July 27, 1970, was observed in a

Title: CHARLES BENJAMIN DI CARO

Character: ANTI-RACKETEERING

Synopsis: Subject allegedly organizing Chicago south side bookmaking for RALPH PIERCE.

DETAILS: AT CHICAGO, ILLINOIS

CG T-1 advised that RALPH PIERCE has been spending a great deal of time at his residence for the past several months allegedly due to the fact that the Chicago Police Department has instituted a surveillance on him and he is reluctant to contact his usual associates with this active surveillance in effect. As a result of PIERCE's inactivity the subject has been visiting PIERCE on a regular basis apparently to receive instructions and deliver messages.

CG T-2 advised that CHARLES "SPECKS" DI CARO, close associate of south side LCN gambling boss RALPH PIERCE, has been told to organize the south side black bookmakers. DI CARO, well known Chicago hoodlum, cartage thief and fence, was formerly associated with FRANK "SKID" CARUSO.

Information is that LIONEL IVES and [redacted] have lost their influence with the outfit and are on the "outs". b6 b7C

This document contains neither recommendations nor conclusions of the FBI. It is the property of the FBI and is loaned to your agency; it and its contents are not to be distributed outside your agency.

DI CARO is using LOVELLE WALDON as his organizer and muscle man. One south side Negro bookmaker refused to join the outfit and pay $1,500.00 a month which resulted in him being severely beaten by WALDON's muscle men. WALDON took over CJ's operation when CJ died and presently operates around 47th and King Drive.

On September 2, 1970, a spot check was made at the restaurant at the Pittsfield Building at approximately 11:25. No one was observed at this time. At approximately 12:30 RALPH PIERCE was observed in the entrance to the Pittsfield Building restaurant talking to the manager of that restaurant. No one other than the restaurant manager was observed with PIERCE at that time.

On September 30,1970, at 11:25 A.M. the subject was observed to enter the Pittsfield Building alone and entered the stairway which lead to the basement level restaurant. Approximately 20 minutes later the booth which is generally occupied by RALPH PIERCE and his associates was observed, however, none of these persons were in the booth.

On October 26, 1970, at approximately 12:30 P.M. RALPH PIERCE, and LES KRUSE were observed in the restaurant at the Pittsfield Building. A person who may have been identical with the subject and one other person were in the booth usually occupied by KRUSE. There were several persons standing in the vicinity and it could not be determined with any certainty that the person resembling the subject was identical with him.

Title: CHARLES BENJAMIN DI CARO

Character: ANTI-RACKETEERING

Synopsis: Subject observed at Pittsfield Building, 1/6/71. Subject chauffeurs for RALPH PIERCE. Subject not known in bookmaking circles on Chicago's south side.

DETAILS:

Spot checks were conducted at the Pittsfield Building on November 12, December 10 and 13, 1970, and January 6, 18 and 20, 1971, at various times during the lunch hour between 12 noon and 1:30 p.m. On January 6, 1971, the subject was observed entering the restaurant of the Pittsfield Building at 12:40 p.m. He was dressed casually and was alone. The booth generally occupied by the subject along with RALPH PIERCE and his associates was empty at this time and the subject was looking around as though he was expecting someone.

On January 18, 1971, RALPH PIERCE was observed in the booth he usually occupies in the restaurant in the Pittsfield Building with three other unidentified persons. The subject was not in the company of RALPH PIERCE.

This document contains neither recommendations nor conclusions of the FBI. It is the property of the FBI and is loaned to your agency; it and its contents are not to be distributed outside your agency.

On January 7, 1971, a spot check was conducted at the residence of the subject, 706 West 26th Street, Chicago, at 10:15 a.m. and 1:20 p.m. No activity was noted and no vehicles registered to the subject or other occupants of this address were noted in the area.

CG T-1 advised that the subject acts as a chauffeur for RALPH PIERCE and usually picks him up on Monday mornings. DI CARO drives PIERCE to a garage on Exchange Avenue near 76th Street where PIERCE stores his Cadillac. The informant could not furnish any further information concerning the activities of the subject and RALPH PIERCE.

CG T-2 who is familiar with bookmaking activities on the south side of Chicago advised that he did not recognize a photograph of the subject and had not heard the name SPECKS or CHARLES DI CARO mentioned on the south side. He stated that he has frequently heard the name of RALPH PIERCE mentioned as being the overall head of the organized south side bookmakers, however, to his knowledge PIERCE is not personally involved but handles this operation through various lieutenants.

Title: CHARLES BENJAMIN DI CARO

Character: ANTI-RACKETEERING

Synopsis: No vehicle registered to subject at Illinois Secretary of State. Subject continues association with RALPH PIERCE. Subject presently employed at Chicago Mc Cormick Place handling display material.

DETAILS: AT CHICAGO, ILLINOIS.

[redacted] Supervisor, Auto Registration Section, Secretary of State, Springfield, Illinois, advised Investigative Clerk (IC) JOSEPH D. HAMMITT on January 20, 1971, that a check of soundex records for 1971 failed to reflect any vehicles registered to PAUL J. [redacted] or CHARLES DI CARO except for 1971 Illinois license FN 2559 issued December 9, 1970, to PAUL J. DI CARO, 706 West 26th Street, Chicago, Illinois, for a 1969 Buick four-door, Vehicle Identification Number (VIN) 484399H12772. b6 b7C

[redacted] also advised that it will be much later in the year before all 1971 registrations are in file. b6 b7C

CG T-1 advised that CHARLIE "SPECS" DI CARO continues to work for RALPH PIERCE as a chauffeur, body guard, and appointment secretary. DI CARO is in practically daily contact with PIERCE and has daily assignments. CG T-1 stated that DI CARO has been given a job at Mc Cormick Place where he works for the Teamsters Union, a job undoubtedly obtained for him through PIERCE. DI CARO has a position having to do with materials loaded into the building in connection with the many expositions and shows, such as the Automobile Show.

This document contains neither recommendations nor conclusions of the FBI. It is the property of the FBI and is loaned to your agency; it and its contents are not to be distributed outside your agency.

On March 8, 1971, a 1969 Buick Electra four-door, with 1971 Illinois license FN 2559, was observed parked at 706 West 26th Street, at 4:30 p.m. It is noted the files of the Secretary of State reflect this car is registered to PAUL J. DI CARO, 706 West 26th Street.

Periodic spot checks in the restaurant of the Pittsfield Building on South Wabash Street, from February 10 through June 2, 1971, were made without observing the subject or RALPH PIERCE in this restaurant.

Periodic spot checks of the residence of the subject at 706 West 26th Street, were made from February 10 through June 2, 1971, without observing subject.

CG T-2 advised that CHARLIE DI CARO does not appear at RALPH PIERCE's residence with near the frequency that he did in the past. CG T-2 stated that DI CARO now has a job at Mc Cormick Place which keeps him busy and prevents his spending as much time with PIERCE as he did in the past. CG T-2 stated that DI CARO has been observed at the PIERCE's residence on several ocassions during the daylight hours and concluded that he apparently does not have regular hours of employment at Mc Cormick Place.

CG T-3 advised that subject has obtained a job through the Teamsters Union at Mc Cormick Place where he loads and moves exhibits which are set out by the various exhibitors when they come into Chicago for a Trade Show. DI CARO does not work at Mc Cormick Place everyday but waits at his residence for a telephone call from the Union Hall to advise him whether or not he is to work that day. On days he is not called for employment at Mc Cormick Place he is free to do errands for and chauffeur RALPH PIERCE, a Chicago upper echelon leader of organized crime.

CG T-4 advised that LEO NOVELLI, a Chicago hoodlum who is close to and friendly with JOSEPH DIVARCO, a prominent north side hoodlum, has a contract at Mc Cormick Place to handle display material. He noted that NOVELLI has cranes and other equipment which he utilizes at Mc Cormick Place to move display material.

CG T-5 advised that the subject continues to serve as PIERCE's body guard, chauffeur, and errand boy, however, PIERCE obtained a job for DI CARO at Mc Cormick Place through PIERCE's contact with the Teamsters Union.

Re: NORMAN MC CARTHY,
SERGEANT, CHICAGO PD
INTELLIGENCE UNIT

An anonymous male has telephonically contacted the writer once each evening on 11/3 & 4/71. He will only identify himself as a Chicago Police Department patrolman. He has made the following allegations:

Sgt. NORMAN MC CARTHY of the Chicago PD Organized Crime Intelligence Unit is very friendly with hoodlum RALPH PIERCE, and has bragged about it while drinking. MC CARTHY formerly was assigned to "48th and Wabash." While there, he regularly visited captioned establishment and received payments from the white owner. The unknown caller further advised that MC CARTHY is very hot headed and pugnacious. The unknown caller was advised that if he expected anything to be done with the information he was providing concerning MC CARTHY specific information was needed. He stated he was unable to provide this at this time but knew that MC CARTHY had "shaken down CHARLES "SPECKS" DI CARO, a close associate of hoodlum RALPH PIERCE and has physically beaten him. He stated that possibly DI CARO might be able to provide information concerning MC CARTHY.

The anonymous caller advised that he will attempt to obtain additional information concerning MC CARTHY and will provide it to this writer. To date he has not recontacted SA BRIICK whose name was given to him.

The above is being submitted for information purposes.

New York report dated 11/26/71 entitled "La Cosa Nostra, AR-Conspiracy" lists both [redacted] and [redacted] as sources for information placing Di Cardo in the Chicago "family" of La Cosa Nostra. It is noted that the Bureau's La Cosa Nostra Membership Index credits [redacted] with identifying Di Cardo as a member but information in Bureau's Automatic Data Processing notes that he is "not a member". b7D

According to information in the report of John D. Riordan dated 6/13/66 the subject is not a member of La Cosa Nostra.

You should review this investigation and direct an appropriate communication to Di Cardo's file containing information necessary for clarification.

Re Bureau letter, 11/22/72, entitled, "CHARLES BENJAMIN DI CARDO, AKA, AR", advising that the Bureau's Automatic Data Processing indicates that captioned subject is not a "member" even though New York report dated 11/26/71, entitled, "LA COSA NOSTRA, AR-CONSPIRACY" lists both [redacted] and [redacted] as sources of information placing "DI CARDO" in the Chicago "family" of La Cosa Nostra. b7D

In view of the fact that the above informant have so identified captioned subject it is felt that possibly the fact that the Bureau has carried captioned subject under the name of "DI CARDO" that a re-check with the Bureau's Automatic Data Processing will reflect that DI CARO is carried as a member of La Cosa Nostra.

Six hoods sue over job firings

By James Strong
Labor Editor

SIX HOODLUMS flushed from their jobs at McCormick Place in the wake of a federal investigation into union shakedowns and payroll padding have filed a $1.3 million civil rights suit in Federal District Court against exposition hall officials, two union chiefs, and two Chicago police officials.

The six, tho not connected with the federal probe of union activities at McCormick Place, charged in their suit that Chicago police conspired with the Teamsters' union and McCormick Place officials to keep them out of work because of their past records and reputations.

Defendants in the suit are Ray Schoessling, chairman of the Metropolitan Fair & Exposition Authority and director of the Central States Conference of Teamsters; John G. Sevcik, manager of McCormick Place; William Hogan Sr. and his son, William Hogan Jr., both officials of Teamsters Local 714; Walter Murphy, commander of the police department's intelligence unit, and Sgt. Jerry Gladden of the organized crime unit.

THE SUIT, currently assigned to Federal Judge Frank J. McGarr, is seeking $225,000 from each defendant.

"This is a case where the union, not the employer, fired the men and they hired the Chicago Police Department to carry out their orders," said Mark L. Schwartzman, attorney for the six unemployed hoodlums.

The suit was filed by Ernest [Rocky] Infelice, a convicted dope peddler; Americo DiFietto, convicted heroin dealer; Charles [Specs] DiCaro, a mob gambling chief; Mario Garelli, convicted with Infelice in the dope rackets; Rocco [the Parrot] Potenza, onetime mob representative in the north suburbs; and Wayne Bock, former professional football player and mob enforcer.

THE SIX INSIST that because of the Federal Bureau of Investigation and Justice Department probe of union activities at McCormick Place they were denied employment and forced to leave the premises by the Chicago police on July 24.

At the time Sevcik and another one of the defendants told The Tribune: "We didn't say these men could not work as Teamsters. We just didn't want them in this building."

The six were not employed by McCormick Place but were brought in by outside contractors setting up exhibits for show managers.

The Tribune has learned that David Kaye, steward for Teamsters Local 714, is expected to be indicted shortly by a federal grand jury in connection with shakedowns and other irregularities at McCormick Place.

IN THEIR suit Infelice and the others charged: "Local 714 frequently employed people with criminal records in an effort to direct such individuals into socially acceptable, lawful, and accepted endeavors. And, the criminal records of the plaintiffs were well known to the union and defendants during employment."

The six contend they were fired to take the "heat" off the investigation of Local 714 and Local 136 of the Machinery Movers, Riggers and Machinery Erectors Union.

The suit charged that they were fired not because of their job performance but were "black-balled" and deprived of "enjoying the fruits of their labor" by McCormick Place officials, in collusion with the Teamsters' local, and aided and enforced by the Chicago police.

6 hoods fired from expo hall sue for jobs

By Art Petacque

Six reputed mobsters fired from their jobs at McCormick Place have filed a $1.3-million civil rights suits in U.S. District Court here against officials of the exposition hall, police officials and union officers.

The six were fired from their teamsters union jobs after their posts came to light during an unrelated investigation of shakedowns of exhibitors at McCormick Place by an alleged labor racketeer who employed them.

Defendants in the suit are Ray Schoessling, chairman of the Metropolitan Fair and Exposition Authority and director of the Central Conference of Teamsters; John G. Sevcik, manager of McCormick Place; William Hogan Sr. and his son, William Hogan Jr., officials of Teamsters Local 714; Walter Murphy, commander of the Chicago Police Intelligence unit, and Sgt. Jerry Gladden, of the organized crime unit.

Plaintiffs in the suit are Charles (Specs) DiCaro, convicted hijacker; Ernest (Rocky) Infelice and Mario Garelli, out on appeal of convictions for selling heroin to an undercover agent at McCormick Place; Americo DePietto, convicted heroin peddler; Rocco Potenza, former syndicate gambling boss in the north suburbs, and Wayne Bock, former football player and a convicted hijacker.

Filing of the suit astounded veteran police officials who remembered that DiCaro, 63, was considered among the most proficient cartage thieves in the nation, especially when teamed up with his old partner Benjamin Bernard, a South Side bar owner.

DiCaro was known to carry a roll of cash with him to handle difficult situations (possible arrest) and at one point in the early 1950s police and Federal Bureau of Investigation officials held a conference to plot his arrest.

Investigators said they were amazed to learn that DiCaro and the other plaintiffs were working at McCormick Place, where strong security measures were already in force to deal with thefts from exhibitors. They said security was tightened even more after the hirings of the reputed mobsters.

Schoessling and Sevcik said they never called for the firing of DiCaro and the others, but only asked for their removal from McCormick Place jobs.

Two of the plaintiffs in the civil rights suit, Infelice and Garelli, recently lost out on their federal court appeal of 10-year sentences for sales of heroin. The two men are out on bond while seeking a Supreme Court hearing on their convictions.

On June 30, 1975, JOSEPH SOTIROS, 17938 Bock Road, Lansing, Illinois, telephone number 895-4022, was interviewed at his place of business, Hegewisch Discount Records, 522 Torrence Avenue, Calumet City, Illinois, telephone number 891-3020.

SOTIROS advised that about 11:53 p.m., on June 26, 1975, an explosion occurred at his business which blew a large hole in the ceiling causing about $5,000 in damage. No one was injured as the store was empty.

This was the fifth incident at the store in the last six months. On the first and second occasion, his windows were broken with pellets. On the third, wrapped bricks and a shotgun shell were thrown through the windows. On the fourth, someone deliberately ran into his car which was parked at the store. SOTIROS did not know why any of these incidents occurred, including the apparent bombing.

SOTIROS has no enemies that he knows of and had no reason for the bombing. He is the sole owner of the business but has a $200,000 mortgage with the Riverdale Bank. He also owes about $100,000 to [redacted] The [redacted] have no reason to cause SOTIROS any trouble as SOTIROS is paying off the debt and has been on time with his payments. b6 b7C

SOTIROS is a friend of RICHIE MILAN who sometimes helps SOTIROS at the store. MILAN has no interest in the business and would have no reason to cause SOTIROS any harm. SOTIROS had no idea as to what MILAN does for a living or who his associates would be. SOTIROS did not know whether MILAN associates with hoodlums and did not know whether or not MILAN is acquainted with JAMES CATUARA or "SPECKS" DICARO. SOTIROS does not know either of these men although he has heard of them. SOTIROS denied having any organized crime connections or knowing of anyone so associated.

SOTIROS has not been threatened by anyone and he reiterated that he knows of no reason why the above incidents have occurred at his store. He said he would immediately notify the proper authorities in the event he is threatened.

RALPH PIERCE, aka
AR

CHARLES DI CARO, aka
AR

[redacted] advised SA WILLIAM F. ROEMER, JR., on 7/7/76, that considerable speculation has arisen since the death of RALPH PIERCE on 7/2/76, concerning the identity of the individual who will be designated by the leaders of organized crime to replace him as the leader responsible for the activities of organized crime on the South Side of Chicago. b7D

This source advised that he believes that in all probability CHARLIE "SPECS" DI CARO will probably be named at least in a temporary position to succeed PIERCE. However, source advised that he would not be surprised if JAMES "TURK" TORELLO, another upper Echelon leader of organized crime in Chicago is not cabed to spread his organization throughout the South Side of Chicago and therefore, in effect, to replace PIERCE. Source advised that already TORELLO has taken over such leading bookmakers in the PIERCE organization as TOMMY DART and would be only logical for him to "swoop up" the other remnants of the old PIERCE organization.

CHARLES BENJAMIN DI CARO

Criminal History

DI CARO, an LCN member, was born on January 19, 1912, at Chicago, Illinois.

In 1966, the records of the Immigration and Naturalization Service, 219 South Dearborn, were reviewed under file number A 11910485. That file reflected that DI CARO, also known as SEVERIO DI CARO, was born in Chicago, Illinois, January 19, 1912, as reflected in Birth Registry number 3585 in the Bureau of Vital Statistics, Chicago, Illinois. This birth registration was under the name of SAVERIO DE CARO. DI CARO was the fourth living child of PAOLO DE CARO, born in Italy, and occupation that of a laborer. His mother was CAROLINE SPIZUZZA, also born in Italy.

According to committment papers in 1956 for DI CARO's incarceration at Terre Haute, Indiana, Federal Penitentiary, he claimed at that time that his wife was MARTHA DI CARO, maiden name RIZZO, and that he had resided at 706 West 26th Street, Chicago, Illinois. The files of the Chicago Police Department, Intelligence Division, in 1966, revealed that DI CARO had a son named PAUL and a daughter named CAROLINE, [redacted] b6 b7C

In March, 1950, Special Agents of the FBI, during a physical surveillance of DI CARO, learned that he was allegedly employed by RALPH PIERCE, Manager, Charlie Russell's Silver Bar, State and Van Buren Streets, Chicago Illinois. During the same time, DI CARO had the reputation among law enforcement officials, that he was an excellent driver and was referred to as a "wheel man" and a driver for RALPH PIERCE. PIERCE, now deceased, was once a leading hoodlum figure in Chicago's south side and controlled football parlay cards and gambling in that area on behalf of the syndicate.

According to his FBI arrest record, DI CARO was first arrested in March, 1929, by the Chicago Police Department and charged with robbery with a gun. Charges against him were later dismissed. A review of his lengthy arrest record indicates that DI CARO has been arrested on numerous occasions on grand larceny violations and theft from interstate shipment and possession of stolen property which came from interstate shipment.

The review of the Chicago file on DI CARO reflects that for approximately 30 years he was employed almost exclusively by RALPH PIERCE, south side hoodlum, now deceased, in the capacity of chauffeur and messenger. The investigation on DI CARO was closed out in September, 1975, when it was established that he was no longer apparently involved in illegal criminal activities.

[redacted] advised that DI CARO was a member of the Chicago "family" of the LCN. b7D
